

May 11, 2010

Client Alert

Plews Shadley Racher & Braun LLP Attorneys Recognized Leadership in Law Honorees

By: Plews Shadley Racher & Braun LLP

Plews Shadley Racher & Braun LLP announces that Christopher J. Braun has been selected as a Distinguished Barrister and Stephanie Eckerle and Shelley Jackson have been named as Up and Coming Lawyers by the Indiana Lawyer in their Leadership in Law series. We are delighted at their selection, as we were with last year's selection in the same series of George Plews as a Distinguished Barrister and Greg Gotwald, Thao Nguyen, and Tonya Bond as Up and Coming Lawyers. The Indiana Lawyer makes its selections based on demonstrated leadership and accomplishment in legal work as well as volunteer and community work.

This year's honorees were announced in the April 28th issue of the Indiana Lawyer and were recognized by present and past honorees at a reception in early May.