

Sue A. Shadley

Partner

Sue Shadley's prominence in Indiana solid and hazardous waste law is widely recognized. She has ably represented most of the companies providing solid waste disposal services in Indiana. She has counseled these companies on compliance issues and guided litigation before administrative tribunals and in court. Indiana's initiative against out-of-state waste met its end in some of these proceedings. Sue's environmental practice extends to other regulatory programs as well including state and federal regulation of mining, air quality, water quality and environmental cleanups. She has served on numerous government and association committees including the Indiana Chamber of Commerce Environmental Committee, the Indiana Manufacturers Association Environmental Legal & Technical Advisory Committee, the Indiana Recycling and Energy Development Board, the Indiana's Environmental Crimes Task Force, and Purdue's Agronomy Advisory Council.

Sue was inducted in the National Solid Waste Management Association's Indiana Hall of Fame in 1992. She was listed as an Indiana "Super Lawyer" for Environmental Law starting in 1999 and was named a Top 25 Female Indiana "Super Lawyer" from 2004 to 2010. Sue was named a Distinguished Agricultural Alumni in 2000. She received the Indiana State Bar Association Women in the Law Committee's Achievement Award in 2003. She was named a Distinguished Fellow of the Indianapolis Bar Foundation in 2006 and featured in the Indianapolis Women Magazine as one of the women making a difference in the law and in Purdue University's Agriculture's Winter magazine as a Purdue alumni in ag law in an article on Life on the Farm Not so Simple Anymore. Sue received an AV peer review rating by Martindale-Hubbell.

Sue held a series of key environmental law positions in Indiana government before founding the firm in 1988. She was Attorney for the Air Pollution Control Division of the Indiana State Board of Health, an Attorney for the Division of Reclamation, Indiana Department of Natural Resources, and Administrative Law Judge for the Indiana Department of Natural Resources, General Counsel for the Indiana Department of Environmental Management's Solid Waste Management Board, Air Pollution Control Board and Water Pollution Control Board.
