

S. Curtis DeVoe

Partner

The focus of Curt DeVoe's practice since 1988 has been on environmental compliance. He has a broad knowledge of Indiana and federal environmental laws and programs that pertain to solid and hazardous waste, surface water, groundwater and air.

Curt regularly negotiates and pursues administrative review of NPDES and industrial wastewater pretreatment permits and enforcement actions under the Clean Water Act and represented property owners in wetland enforcement and mitigation matters under EPA, IDEM, and the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers rules and proceedings. He represents buyers and sellers of properties and business assets involving environmental concerns including drafting and negotiating contractual language, transfer of permits, and investigation, assessment and response to contamination and other environmental liabilities. Curt has represented a variety of clients and obtained site closures through Indiana's Voluntary Remediation Program—a program he helped create by participating in regulated-industry and legal community workshops—and other state and federal cleanup programs.

Curt received his A.B. from Princeton University in 1982. He received his J.D. from the University of California, Berkeley, School of Law (Boalt Hall) in 1988. Before law school, Curt taught at the Crossroads School for Arts and Sciences in Santa Monica California. He was an associate at Ice Miller Donadio & Ryan in Indianapolis from 1988 to 1993. He joined this firm in 1993 and became a partner in 1998.

Curt received an AV peer review rating by Martindale-Hubbell and has been named a "Super Lawyer" and a "Best Lawyer" in environmental law.
