OF COUNSEL

OVERVIEW

We represent multiple clients in the waste industry. Whether you accept municipal solid waste from general customers or you have a special waste disposal site for just your facility, we can help you with all of your permitting, compliance, due diligence, and transactional needs. In addition to disposal facilities we have experience with transfer stations, waste haulers, recycling facilities. We can assist you with hazardous waste permits if appropriate, and are also experienced in assisting clients with exemptions and variances as well. Our holistic approach to representation of the waste industry allows us to understand your business needs and help you find solutions to your most pressing problems.
