OVERVIEW

In the highly regulated, complex, and ever-changing health care environment, our attorneys are well-equipped to assist you with all aspects of your business in the health care field. We represent a broad spectrum of health care clients, including physicians and physician groups, nurses, pharmacists, retail and long-term care pharmacies, skilled nursing facilities, pharmaceutical manufacturers, and medical device clients.

We know you are in your business to improve the lives of your patients and clients. We understand that byzantine regulations, payer requirements, and general risk management can complicate this simple goal. We're here to help. Our experience in the health care field allows us to guide you through the life of your business. We can help create your practice or business, support you as you face challenges, help you maintain compliance with health care regulations, and advocate on your behalf to resolve disputes and meet your business needs. Whether you are an individual, a practice group or an institution, we bring a 360-degree approach to understanding your legal, financial and business needs, resulting in efficient, top-notch representation.
