OF COUNSEL

PETER M. RACHER

OVERVIEW

We have significant experience with construction defects, architectural errors and omissions, land use and stigma damages claims. We have successfully represented owners, contractors, agricultural cooperatives, developers, landfill operators and neighbors. We have also served as counsel in multi-plaintiff and class-action construction claims. Our clients benefit with our experience because this area of focus dovetails with our insurance-recovery practice, as insurance claims are nearly always implicated.
