OVERVIEW

Amber joined Plews, Shadley, Racher & Braun in April of 2024. She assists with environmental litigation, insurance cost recovery, condemnation litigation, and other general litigation matters. She enjoys conducting research and taking deep dives into the backgrounds and strategies of cases.

Amber attended Ball State University and completed the Paralegal Certificate Program from the University of Texas at Austin Center for Professional Education. Prior to joining PSRB, Amber worked as a Paralegal and Senior Legal Assistant in the insurance and collections industries. She spent 6 years in the Trial Division of a Fortune 100 insurance company where she focused on liability and workers' compensation defense, minors' compromises, and subrogation.
