OVERVIEW

Kyle Steinbrueck is an experienced attorney specializing in real estate litigation and environmental disputes. He brings a strategic and results-driven approach to resolving a wide variety of claims for his clients.

His real estate litigation practice includes the litigation of claims involving the sale of commercial property and numerous eminent domain actions. Kyle also represents property owners in navigating complex environmental cleanups and investigations. This work includes the litigation of environmental cost-recovery actions and adversarial administrative proceedings. In addition, Kyle advocates for policyholders in various insurance coverage disputes, helping clients secure compensation for claims involving environmental contamination, property damage, and commercial liability.

Kyle began his legal career in St. Louis, Missouri, where he focused on litigating insurance coverage disputes. An avid college basketball fan, Kyle served as a student manager for the University of Illinois Men's Basketball team while pursuing his undergraduate degree.
