OVERVIEW

Nick served as a summer associate at Plews Shadley Rancher & Braun before joining the firm full-time. Prior to law school, Nick worked as a data intern in Washington D.C. During law school, Nick was active in the Business Law Association and the Environmental Law Society. Following his first year of law school, Nick worked as a law clerk in Fort Wayne. During his second and third years of law school, Nick participated in multiple Moot Court competitions, including the National Environmental Law Moot Court Competition where he was named best oralist in the second round. In the IU McKinney Intramural Moot Court Competition, Nick was awarded the second highest score for briefing, and the third highest score for oral advocacy. Prior to joining PSRB, Nick also served as a judicial extern to the Honorable James P. Hanlon in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Indiana.
