OVERVIEW

Sean M. Hirschten practices in a variety of areas including insurance coverage, complex litigation, environmental and business services. His insurance coverage cases have involved multi-million dollar international toxic torts, and have dealt with policies ranging from commercial general liability (“CGL”), directors and officers (“D&O”), first-party property, uninsured and underinsured motorists (“UM/UIM”), fidelity, crime, etc. He has argued before numerous tribunals, including the Indiana Supreme Court.

In the environmental field he has litigated cases involving the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act (“CERCLA”), the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act (“RCRA”), the National Environmental Policy Act (“NEPA”), Indiana’s Environmental Liability Act (“ELA”), and other statutory and common-law claims. His business litigation experience has involved everything from contract disputes over commissions owed to brokers to corporate dissolutions, and many other things in between.
