

Sue A. Shadley to be Honored on Saturday, November 7, 2015
October 30, 2015

The life of Sue A. Shadley will be celebrated on Saturday, November 7, 2015. Shadley passed away on October 19, 2015, after having been diagnosed in 2014 with ALS, also known as Lou Gehrig's disease. Shadley was a founding partner at Plews Shadley Racher & Braun LLP and devoted her career to environmental law and regulations. Shadley is survived by her husband, Mike Hart, her sister Kay, and countless friends and family members.

Details are as follows:

Date: Saturday November 7, 2015

Time: 1:00 pm - 4:00 pm

Location: Clowes Court at the Eiteljorg Museum
500 W Washington St, Indianapolis, IN 46204

The rough schedule of events is:

- 1:00 pm - 2:00 pm - Arrival/visiting
- 2:00 pm - 2:30 pm - Memorial service/Eulogy/Remembrances
- 2:30 pm - 4:00 pm - Visiting (appetizers & drinks will be available)
- 4:00 pm - 5:00 pm - Attendees are free to visit all Eiteljorg Museum exhibitions (free of charge) until closing

Please note that the Indianapolis Monumental Marathon is taking place in downtown Indianapolis the same day and extra time may need to be allotted for travel.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Indiana Chapter of the ALS Association.

A more detailed view of Shadley's accomplishments can be seen on her firm bio.